

What's YOUR

Geography "I.Q."?

Celebrate Geography Awareness Week with geography quizzes Monday, Nov. 10 through Friday, Nov. 14 in The Gazette. Look for 5 new questions daily from the 2008 National Geography Bee, a program of the National Geographic Society.

My Wonderful World.org

A National Geographic-led campaign

---

Day 3

11. Following the 1959 revolution, the Communist government of what island country in the Greater Antilles seized control of U.S.-owned businesses, including sugar estates?
12. In 1930, the first FIFA [FEE-fuh] World Cup men's soccer tournament was held in, and won by, which small South American country that shares its name with the river along its western border?
13. The dissolution of the Republic of Gran Colombia in 1830 eventually led to the establishment of four independent countries, including Panama, Colombia, Venezuela, and what other country located south of Colombia?
14. Conejo [coh-NAY-ho] Island, a small island in the Gulf of Fonseca [fon-SAY-kuh], is the subject of a dispute between Honduras and its smallest neighbor. Name this country.
15. Which country has recently reactivated its claim to the Atacama Corridor that it lost to Chile in 1884 after the War of the Pacific?

---

Students, enter our contest! Answer all 25 quiz questions and submit your answers to "What's Your Geography IQ?" c/o The Gazette, 30 S. Prospect St., Colorado Springs, CO 80903, no later than Noon, Tuesday, November 25. Be sure to print your name, address, school, teacher and grade (through 12th) to be eligible for 5 random prizes drawn from all correct entries. (Check answers in the Monday, December 1 issue of The Gazette.) For more information, call NIE at Gazette Classroom Connection at 636-0191.

Gazette Classroom Connection
READERS
BECOME LEADERS

The Gazette
gazette.com